

"Welcome To My World"

Betty Winkler Hodges

Neillrae Music

Let me introduce myself and share with you what the "Welcome To My World" newsletter is all about. Future issues will be a periodic update of happenings in the realm of "Welcome to My World" ("WTMW") and Neillrae Music.

Ray Winkler wrote the lyrics to "WTMW." He was my father. I lost him May 9, 1998. His devoted wife, my mother Libby, continued to administer Neillrae Music until her death February 17, 2004. Now the legacy is mine.

So many new and exciting things are happening for Neillrae Music and "WTMW", I felt a need to find a way to share them with the many business associates and friends of Ray and Libby Winkler, Neillrae Music, and the fans of "WTMW."

It is my hope that this "Welcome To My World" newsletter will accomplish this.

John Hathcock is the co-writer of "Welcome To My World" and is also known for another no. 1 hit, "Wake Up Irene."
